NOTE: A second tie-break was used to determine places #8 and #19. Dave Tykwinski, #4 and #13, entered the tournament as two persons and played his games simultaneously.

Cash Prizes:

William Martz $52.00
 Robert Bond 15.25
 Stephan Popel 15.25
 Dave Tykwinski 15.25

Trophies:

Chuck Keyman State Champion
 William Martz Top Out-of-State Player
 Robert Bond Class A
 Gary Carlson Class B
 Jeff Pennig Class C
 Robert Rieman Class C, second
 Elmer Hecht Class D + Unrated

Chuck Keyman won the State Title for the second consecutive year. John Caldwell was not awarded the Title because all attempts to verify that he is a South Dakota resident failed. Furthermore, the Class D trophy was not sent to him because a letter that was sent to the address he gave came back.

Both players and tournament organizers were astonished by the terrific attendance at the 1967 South Dakota Open. Only 15 to 20 had been expected, but 26 showed up and swamped the registration table. The tournament was remarkably strong (ave. 1693), for two masters and an expert were present. It was also balanced, there being 5 in Class A, 6 in B, 8 in C, and 4 in D + Unrated. Having had such a fine tournament, we hope that next year's will be still better. I think that it easily will be if we use Stephan Popel's idea of combining the South Dakota and North Dakota Opens for a Dakota Open. This tournament would be held in a somewhat centralized city to allow everyone a reasonably short trip. It would assure a larger turnout and more prizes, and large cash prizes could even be guaranteed if the SDCA is willing to use some of its funds to back a specified amount in addition to the usual percentage of entry fees. I hope that those who are interested in having a Dakota Open in their own city will begin making plans soon so that everyone will have plenty of advance notice. Here's hoping for a bigger and better Open than ever!

The following games were played at the 1967 South Dakota Open. One of the best games in each round was selected.
