

BULLETIN

OF THE SOUTH DAKOTA CHESS ASSOCIATION

JANUARY - FEBRUARY 1992

PRESIDENT'S NOTE

As winter continues to drag out into the New Year, the wheels are slowly turning in motion. The chess season, already initiated by Ralph Bailey's annual winter Chess League, is beginning to warm up. I am looking forward to playing many of you in the upcoming tournaments.

Unfortunately, all is not well in the ranks of the SDCA. I have heard independent gripes and grumbles from several chess players. These, along with the 501(c)(3) status, have forced me to a decision. Therefore, on the Saturday of the Sioux Falls Open, There will be a board of directors meeting. Topics that will be discussed are 501(c)(3), The South Dakota Chess Foundation and Trust, The Battle of Cities, and the general status of the SDCA. All board members will be expected to be there. The time will be announced soon.

A few random notes in conclusion: Jeff Barth, suffering the pains of chess burnout and other outside pressures, has taken a sabbatical from the Bulletin. Patrick Steele has been appointed the new editor, and I'm sure he can fill his predecessor's shoes well. Kyle Hammond was recently featured in an edition of "South Dakota" magazine. Lastly, I hope all of you will join me in bidding a fond "goodbye" to the Bush & Quayle routine, and help me usher in the Clinton & Kennedy combo. Till the Open.

Dan Van Deest

EDITOR'S NOTE

I would like to welcome all of you to this issue, my first attempt at editing the bulletin, and I would like to thank Jeff Barth for all of his time and effort in the past. I hope that all of you who have contributed to the bulletin over the years continue to do so. And all of you who have never submitted anything for publication, please consider it.

The Sioux Falls Chess League Awards and Recognition Banquet is scheduled for March 26 at 7PM at Chris' Restaurant, 4402 W. 12th. Everyone is welcome to attend.

The Sioux Falls Open is scheduled for April 4-5. It will be held at Augustana College in the Social Science Building. See the tournament notice inside for more details.

The Scholastic is scheduled for April 25. Contact Arnold Mathews for details. His address is 916 11th Ave NE, Aberdeen, SD 57401.
