

BULLETIN

OF THE SOUTH DAKOTA CHESS ASSOCIATION

MAY-JUNE 1993

EDITORS'S NOTE

This will be my last issue of the Bulletin. Alan Kingsley has offered to take over the editor's duties. I would like to thank all those who have contributed to the bulletin during my term and I hope that you will continue to send information and reports to Alan. The Bulletin is vital to those of us who do not have easy access to a chess club.

WESTERN SD OPEN

Six players showed up for each section of the Western SD Open and there was little interest in the speed tournament, so the Western SD Open was played in five rounds as a round robin. The reserve section finished with the players in the order of their ratings. I had most of the upsets, giving up draws to three lower rated players and beating the eventual champ, William Loup, who won all his other games. The open section also had some upsets with Steve Schaffer drawing with Steve Norquist and Harry Overholtzer scored two points against higher rated players. Steve Norquist and Dan Schmidt tied for first place.
