

BULLETIN OF THE SOUTH DAKOTA CHESS ASSOCIATION

2001: A CHESS ODYSSEY

As we head into the year 2001, unlike the movie, "2001: A Space Odyssey" we have no base on the moon, we have discovered no black cylinder on the moon nor one beyond the orbit of Jupiter. We have launched no manned interplanetary probes. We have not yet built a space station similar to the movie version, but hopefully the space station presently being built will be better than the Mir station which is headed for incineration in the atmosphere.

Instead of the Artificial Intelligence HAL which was able to beat humans at chess we have Deeper Blue which using an algorithm to search every move, won a match against the reigning world champion Gary Kasparov. In the end both HAL and Deeper Blue were dismantled.

Lastly, there is no sign of the Star Child to which man evolved at the end of 2001: A Space Odyssey. Whereas the Star Child symbolized the hope for mankind in the movie, in South Dakota it is primarily scholastic chess which gives us hope for the future of chess in South Dakota. This fall four scholastic tournaments played South Dakota. We had four different organizers of these tournaments. Pierre Indian Learning Center and the Sioux Falls Home School Association played in 3 of 4 events. The best attended events were Veterans Day Scholastic with 125 players and the Governors Cup Scholastic which had 100 players.

Bob Wallace is now a local TD in Pierre and is actively organizing chess tournaments in the Pierre area. Erik Abrahamson won an award in Rapid City for his organizational efforts. Erik is organizing a Rapid City caravan to the Supernational in Kansas City. They and the Home Schoolers and other South Dakotans will be sharing a team room at the Supernational. The Sioux Empire Chess Foundation has donated $250.00 of the $1000 for this room.

The chess year will start with the Sioux Empire Chess Foundation chess clinic on January 13, 2001 with South Dakota's only master, Nels Truelson, (though Hungarian IM Sandor Kustar is listed as being from South Dakota) providing the instruction. Mark Gerdes will be organizing his first tournament on January 20. The Winter Open will be held at the Inn on Westport in Sioux Falls. The USCF and AmerciInn are sponsoring chess tournaments on January 20, 21, 27 and 28. Terry Likens and I will both bid on local tournaments in this series of local tournaments. These tournaments include Adult and Youth section where the top four continue on to Sectional Competition.

Rapid City will be holding the Black Hills Classic on February 3. The Sioux Falls Classic will reprise in early February for unrated Sioux Falls players.

The Governor's Cup was able to attract a record number of players.

Thanks to the Home Schoolers we were able to raise the number of South Dakotans and persons playing in the Reserve Section. The Open and Premier numbers were down despite a record amount of money in the Open..

The following won trophies or medals in the tournament. The 5th Annual Governor's Cup, held September 29-October 1, attracted over 200 players from seven countries and 17 states. GMs Alex Wojtkiewicz and Yuri Shulman shared first place with S, after winning key battles in round four against IM Sandor Kustar of Hungary and GM Alexander Goldin of Israel respectively. Teenager Joshua Zilmer of Wisconsin, rated only 1920, impressed with wins against two masters and a last round draw with FM Enkhbat Tegshsuren of Mongolia. The 4th Sioux Falls City Scholastic was held on November 18,2000 at Sioux Falls O’Gorman. Fifty players and twenty- one teams attended. The tournament was dominated by the Sioux Falls Home School Association which brought twenty-five players. In the K-6 the Home Schoolers were split into 2 teams to make pairing easier. The Home Schoolers won every team trophy and all but three of the individual trophies. Medals were awarded to those who tied with trophy winners ,but lost to the trophy winner on tiebreak.Mark Knudson won his fourth straight city championnship, Nick Truelson who won the Elementary last year moved up to win the Junior High Division this year. Jordan Gerdes won the Elementary after winning the Elementary in 1998 and tying for 1st in 1999. Ryan Brandt repeated his sweep from Veterans Day Scholastic in Rapid City in the K-3 Division. Our thanks to O”Gorman for providing the facility, to Mark Gerdes, Greg Waters and Don Haggar for their assistance in setting up and registration, to the Sioux Empire Chess Foundation for their assistance in providing trophies and paying for the playing site.
